AT A VERY YOUNG AGE, THE THREE KIDS WERE SENT OFF TO STUDY IN INDIA

THEY WERE TO GROW UP UNDER THE GUARDIANSHIP OF AN AUNT FROM GRAND-FATHER'S SIDE.

THE KIDS GREW UP INTO STRAPPING YOUNG TEENS.

Do you have a good story to tell?

Join illustrator Priya Kuriyan at the Kerala Museum and learn how to bring your stories alive through comics! Get introduced to this exciting medium of visual storytelling. Develop your own stories and characters and bring them together in the form of a comic!

The workshop will focus on the theme of migration and explore works in the museum's exhibition, Shifting Narratives. Participants will be encouraged to discuss their ideas of home and personal stories of migration.

Prior illustration experience not necessary. This workshop is suitable for participants aged 16 and above.

All you need to bring with you is your stories and plenty of enthusiasm!

Registration:

Registration fees: Rs 150 for the two day workshop, inclusive of materials and lunch. Seats limited. To register, visit the Kerala Museum OR call +91 8129051880 / 0484 4020506 or email us at mnfoundationkochi@gmail.com
