

ANJALI PANJABI

Education:

M.A in Literature and Linguistics

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Documentary Films:

I have directed the documentary film A Few Things I Know About Her, produced by Films Division. This film was a travelogue and a personal exploration about Mirabai the sixteenth century bhakti poetess. The film won the Silver Conch in the National Competition Section at MIFF 2002, the biennial film festival organized by the Govt. of India. The film was also selected for Indian Panorama 2002, and screened at the International Film Festival of India.

I have worked with Mira Nair on her award winning documentary film The Laughter Club Of India as researcher and assistant director. (1999)

I worked briefly as Associate Director on a series for Canadian History Channel. The programme was called Turning Points and was about the Bhopal gas tragedy. (1999)

Feature Films:

I worked as first assistant director on Monsoon Wedding, directed by Mira Nair. (2000)

I worked with Dev Benegal on English August. (1994)

I worked with Mansoor Khan on Akele Hum Akele Tum. This was a mainstream commercial film. (1995)

I worked with Kaizaad Gustaad on Bombay Boys as script supervisor. (1997)

Advertisement:

For a year (June 1998 to June 1999), I was working as Senior Production Executive with Whitelight, a leading production house in the country.

Television:

I worked as Associate Director on a television serial called Mumkin. This was directed by Shabnam Sakhdev and Tanuja Chandra. It was for a private Indian Channel. (1996)

Contact:

E-Mail: anjalipanjabi10@hotmail.com

Mobile: 91-22 _ 9820432868.