Regarding: Request for Extension of six months for completion of I, DANCE. Documentary

Dear Anuja:

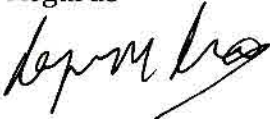

I am writing to follow up on our phone conversation with regard to an extension of six months to complete, I, DANCE., a documentary that features Sheema Kermani and the story of classical dance in Pakistan.

The film has been shot and transcribed. However, I am asking for the extension because I am working with Anupama Chandra on the edit. Anupama is a talented editor who both appreciates the content of the documentary and has aesthetic sensibilities that I admire. However, she was unable to work on the film until July this year as a result of a former editing commitment.

I do hope you can process this request as discussed.

I await your response.

Regards
